Dear Kevin:

It is rare in this hectic business that we can stand back and appreciate the people that make it happen. Over the past five years your company and your people have provided the utmost in quality and punctuality. As you well know this is critical in the homebuilding where time and workmanship can make the difference in working the sell.

Once again consider this a long-delayed Thank You and I hope your company continues its high success.

Sincerely,
